

Helen Bumpus Gallery

Wednesday, April 18, 2001

Duxbury Clipper

The Helen Bumpus Gallery located in Duxbury Free Library is presenting works of Artist Andrew Kusmin during the months of April and May. An opening reception and discussion with the artist will be held in the Merry Room on Thursday, May 3, 6-7 pm. The artist is a realist and has won many awards. He serves as president of the New England Watercolor Society. He will talk about his work and techniques at the reception. Refreshments will be served and all are welcome.